

THE HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1881.

LOCAL EDITION.

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and renewals, advertising in the HERALD, orders for job work, etc., etc.:

JOHN T. MATTHEWS, Boston.
WILL COOPER, Cincinnati.
DR. V. M. TAYLOR, Louisville.
JAMES W. MATTHEWS, Louisville.
DAVID BEARDS, Boston.
JESSE T. SMITH, Jr., Louisville.
A. S. ADAMS, Springfield.
R. P. ADAMS, Cincinnati.
GEO. M. ROWE, Cincinnati.
DR. D. R. SANDERS, Cincinnati.
JESSE T. SMITH, Jr., Louisville.
T. J. HENRY, Cincinnati.
W. H. MERRILL, Beaver D.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce that J. HARRIS, of Madison county, a candidate for the office of State Senator in this, the 18th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Ohio, Madison and Butler, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce that J. HARRIS, of Madison county, a candidate for the office of State Senator in this, the 18th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Ohio, Madison and Butler, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Mrs. Maudie, stricken!

"To which do you have reference?"

Yesterday was Washington's birthday.

Genl. late style collars at Anderson's.

"Take your produce to the Red Front and get the highest prices."

Coverlets, quilts, table linens and towels in great bargains at Anderson's.

"Try the 'Banzan' collars' at the Red Front. Nothing like it in Hartford."

Parties wanting safe life insurance should call on Mr. H. B. Knudsen, Hartford, Ky.

If you want a good drink morning, night or noon, you can get it, we think, at Van Hill's saloon.

Mr. Van Hill, one of our most famous, moved Monday from Mr. Patton's room in the old frame hotel.

A Sewing Machine for sale, good as new, at a bargain. Call at once on J. P. Barrett, Hartford, Conn., 7-7-7.

Last week's Herald contained a typographical error in the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones. Her remains were interred on Sunday evening and not Saturday, as we had it.

Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881, at 10 o'clock, little John Griffin, infant son of D. E. Elmsland Monte Thomas, aged 11 days. The funeral took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We met our old friend, Chas. W. Hussey, in town Monday and learned from him that he had moved back to Buford. We regretted to see him in such bad health and hope he will experience a speedy recovery.

—Mrs. Lucy Edson, successor to Griffin Bros., has a full supply of staple and fancy groceries. You will find this establishment just under the Hartford office, where Messrs. Wan, H. and P. White Edson are in readiness to supply your wants. Give this house a trial when you wish anything in the grocery line.

—The "Handy Corner" is being repaired, newly-papered, remodeled and fitted up in elegant style, and will be occupied by Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg some time this week. Mr. Rosenberg will fill up the establishment with a large stock of dry goods, notions, boots, shoes and clothing. He is well known here and is quite a popular merchant.

—The musical concert at Court Hill last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair. The occasion was that of a benefit given by the citizens of the town to Prof. Ludwig, leader of the Hartford Cornet Band. Although it rained with-out ceasing, yet a goodly number of the music-loving citizens of the town were in attendance. The programme embraced overtures, duets, solos, quick-steps, which were well rendered.

—Mr. H. F. Mustain, of House Cave, is doing a land office business here in the spoke trade. He came here only a short time ago, but by indomitable energy he has already got on ovens of spokes, regardless of ice and snow, and now has a large number of men at work—the number increasing daily. He has created a demand for a timber that heretofore has been almost worthless, and has given employment to a large number of idle men at remunerative wages.

—On the first page of this issue is an article from Rev. W. P. Bennett, in reply to our answer to his attack on recently in regard to a local notice of the result of his recent protracted meeting here. Now, as we have no desire to engage in a newspaper controversy, especially with a minister, for Bro. Bennett's sake, we will say that the meeting referred to was quite a success—that its influence has pervaded all vocations of the town; that not a single dance has been held; that the bar-keepers are all wearing long faces, and not stopping here, its reviving influence has gone out to the remote precincts of the county.

PERSONAL.

Spring teams are now in order.

Local news has been quite scarce this week.

Shedding shows last night that Anderson's is doing.

Everybody knows what "That Banzan" collar of the Red Front.

Hartford has been well supplied with dimmers for the past week.

White sewing machine needles and all attachments to be had at Anderson's.

If you are troubled with rheumatism use "Kendall's Spavin Cure." See advertisement.

Call on Lon Hill when you want a good drink, safely served up. Lon's saloon is a daisy, it is.

Mr. Griffin has resumed work on the old jail and will soon have it converted into a new residence.

Gross Williams wants all the children and turkey in the county, and will pay the highest cash prices.

New clothes, new cassimere, new clothing, and a lot of nice notions at V. P. Anderson's.

George W. Stewart, of Pleasant Ridge vicinity, has rented the farm near House of Edward and will move to this week.

Miss Naomi Morton, of Covello, this county, and Miss Emma Parsh of Spring Lake, Grayson county, are new pupils of Hartford College.

Always keep "Kendall's Spavin Cure" in your house. If you do, you will not get it for you sent to the price.

—Nice fresh groceries—the very best kind. These furnish you always can find.

At prices as low as ever before. At Mrs. Edson's grocery store.

Mr. B. Marshall, traveling salesman for John F. Siler, dealer in the cigars and best tobacco in town, this week. Mr. Marshall is one of the best salesmen that make peddling visits to this place.

—It is, perhaps, not generally known to numbers that J. White & Co., the great merchant tailor and clothiers, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., give them special discount on prices, the specially reduced price of discount. This firm is plainly inhumane.

For the benefit of the Breckenridge News and Herald, we will say that the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones, as we had it, is in error.

—Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881, at 10 o'clock, little John Griffin, infant son of D. E. Elmsland Monte Thomas, aged 11 days. The funeral took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We met our old friend, Chas. W. Hussey, in town Monday and learned from him that he had moved back to Buford. We regretted to see him in such bad health and hope he will experience a speedy recovery.

—Mrs. Lucy Edson, successor to Griffin Bros., has a full supply of staple and fancy groceries. You will find this establishment just under the Hartford office, where Messrs. Wan, H. and P. White Edson are in readiness to supply your wants. Give this house a trial when you wish anything in the grocery line.

—The "Handy Corner" is being repaired, newly-papered, remodeled and fitted up in elegant style, and will be occupied by Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg some time this week. Mr. Rosenberg will fill up the establishment with a large stock of dry goods, notions, boots, shoes and clothing. He is well known here and is quite a popular merchant.

—The musical concert at Court Hill last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair. The occasion was that of a benefit given by the citizens of the town to Prof. Ludwig, leader of the Hartford Cornet Band. Although it rained with-out ceasing, yet a goodly number of the music-loving citizens of the town were in attendance. The programme embraced overtures, duets, solos, quick-steps, which were well rendered.

—Mr. H. F. Mustain, of House Cave, is doing a land office business here in the spoke trade. He came here only a short time ago, but by indomitable energy he has already got on ovens of spokes, regardless of ice and snow, and now has a large number of men at work—the number increasing daily. He has created a demand for a timber that heretofore has been almost worthless, and has given employment to a large number of idle men at remunerative wages.

—On the first page of this issue is an article from Rev. W. P. Bennett, in reply to our answer to his attack on recently in regard to a local notice of the result of his recent protracted meeting here. Now, as we have no desire to engage in a newspaper controversy, especially with a minister, for Bro. Bennett's sake, we will say that the meeting referred to was quite a success—that its influence has pervaded all vocations of the town; that not a single dance has been held; that the bar-keepers are all wearing long faces, and not stopping here, its reviving influence has gone out to the remote precincts of the county.

PERSONAL.

Spring teams are now in order.

Local news has been quite scarce this week.

Shedding shows last night that Anderson's is doing.

Everybody knows what "That Banzan" collar of the Red Front.

Hartford has been well supplied with dimmers for the past week.

White sewing machine needles and all attachments to be had at Anderson's.

If you are troubled with rheumatism use "Kendall's Spavin Cure." See advertisement.

Call on Lon Hill when you want a good drink, safely served up. Lon's saloon is a daisy, it is.

Mr. Griffin has resumed work on the old jail and will soon have it converted into a new residence.

Gross Williams wants all the children and turkey in the county, and will pay the highest cash prices.

New clothes, new cassimere, new clothing, and a lot of nice notions at V. P. Anderson's.

George W. Stewart, of Pleasant Ridge vicinity, has rented the farm near House of Edward and will move to this week.

Miss Naomi Morton, of Covello, this county, and Miss Emma Parsh of Spring Lake, Grayson county, are new pupils of Hartford College.

Always keep "Kendall's Spavin Cure" in your house. If you do, you will not get it for you sent to the price.

—Nice fresh groceries—the very best kind. These furnish you always can find.

At prices as low as ever before. At Mrs. Edson's grocery store.

Mr. B. Marshall, traveling salesman for John F. Siler, dealer in the cigars and best tobacco in town, this week. Mr. Marshall is one of the best salesmen that make peddling visits to this place.

—It is, perhaps, not generally known to numbers that J. White & Co., the great merchant tailor and clothiers, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., give them special discount on prices, the specially reduced price of discount. This firm is plainly inhumane.

For the benefit of the Breckenridge News and Herald, we will say that the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones, as we had it, is in error.

—Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881, at 10 o'clock, little John Griffin, infant son of D. E. Elmsland Monte Thomas, aged 11 days. The funeral took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We met our old friend, Chas. W. Hussey, in town Monday and learned from him that he had moved back to Buford. We regretted to see him in such bad health and hope he will experience a speedy recovery.

—Mrs. Lucy Edson, successor to Griffin Bros., has a full supply of staple and fancy groceries. You will find this establishment just under the Hartford office, where Messrs. Wan, H. and P. White Edson are in readiness to supply your wants. Give this house a trial when you wish anything in the grocery line.

—The "Handy Corner" is being repaired, newly-papered, remodeled and fitted up in elegant style, and will be occupied by Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg some time this week. Mr. Rosenberg will fill up the establishment with a large stock of dry goods, notions, boots, shoes and clothing. He is well known here and is quite a popular merchant.

—The musical concert at Court Hill last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair. The occasion was that of a benefit given by the citizens of the town to Prof. Ludwig, leader of the Hartford Cornet Band. Although it rained with-out ceasing, yet a goodly number of the music-loving citizens of the town were in attendance. The programme embraced overtures, duets, solos, quick-steps, which were well rendered.

—Mr. H. F. Mustain, of House Cave, is doing a land office business here in the spoke trade. He came here only a short time ago, but by indomitable energy he has already got on ovens of spokes, regardless of ice and snow, and now has a large number of men at work—the number increasing daily. He has created a demand for a timber that heretofore has been almost worthless, and has given employment to a large number of idle men at remunerative wages.

—On the first page of this issue is an article from Rev. W. P. Bennett, in reply to our answer to his attack on recently in regard to a local notice of the result of his recent protracted meeting here. Now, as we have no desire to engage in a newspaper controversy, especially with a minister, for Bro. Bennett's sake, we will say that the meeting referred to was quite a success—that its influence has pervaded all vocations of the town; that not a single dance has been held; that the bar-keepers are all wearing long faces, and not stopping here, its reviving influence has gone out to the remote precincts of the county.

PERSONAL.

Spring teams are now in order.

Local news has been quite scarce this week.

Shedding shows last night that Anderson's is doing.

Everybody knows what "That Banzan" collar of the Red Front.

Hartford has been well supplied with dimmers for the past week.

White sewing machine needles and all attachments to be had at Anderson's.

If you are troubled with rheumatism use "Kendall's Spavin Cure." See advertisement.

Call on Lon Hill when you want a good drink, safely served up. Lon's saloon is a daisy, it is.

Mr. Griffin has resumed work on the old jail and will soon have it converted into a new residence.

Gross Williams wants all the children and turkey in the county, and will pay the highest cash prices.

New clothes, new cassimere, new clothing, and a lot of nice notions at V. P. Anderson's.

George W. Stewart, of Pleasant Ridge vicinity, has rented the farm near House of Edward and will move to this week.

Miss Naomi Morton, of Covello, this county, and Miss Emma Parsh of Spring Lake, Grayson county, are new pupils of Hartford College.

Always keep "Kendall's Spavin Cure" in your house. If you do, you will not get it for you sent to the price.

—Nice fresh groceries—the very best kind. These furnish you always can find.

At prices as low as ever before. At Mrs. Edson's grocery store.

Mr. B. Marshall, traveling salesman for John F. Siler, dealer in the cigars and best tobacco in town, this week. Mr. Marshall is one of the best salesmen that make peddling visits to this place.

—It is, perhaps, not generally known to numbers that J. White & Co., the great merchant tailor and clothiers, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., give them special discount on prices, the specially reduced price of discount. This firm is plainly inhumane.

For the benefit of the Breckenridge News and Herald, we will say that the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones, as we had it, is in error.

—Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881, at 10 o'clock, little John Griffin, infant son of D. E. Elmsland Monte Thomas, aged 11 days. The funeral took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We met our old friend, Chas. W. Hussey, in town Monday and learned from him that he had moved back to Buford. We regretted to see him in such bad health and hope he will experience a speedy recovery.

—Mrs. Lucy Edson, successor to Griffin Bros., has a full supply of staple and fancy groceries. You will find this establishment just under the Hartford office, where Messrs. Wan, H. and P. White Edson are in readiness to supply your wants. Give this house a trial when you wish anything in the grocery line.

—The "Handy Corner" is being repaired, newly-papered, remodeled and fitted up in elegant style, and will be occupied by Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg some time this week. Mr. Rosenberg will fill up the establishment with a large stock of dry goods, notions, boots, shoes and clothing. He is well known here and is quite a popular merchant.

—The musical concert at Court Hill last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair. The occasion was that of a benefit given by the citizens of the town to Prof. Ludwig, leader of the Hartford Cornet Band. Although it rained with-out ceasing, yet a goodly number of the music-loving citizens of the town were in attendance. The programme embraced overtures, duets, solos, quick-steps, which were well rendered.

—Mr. H. F. Mustain, of House Cave, is doing a land office business here in the spoke trade. He came here only a short time ago, but by indomitable energy he has already got on ovens of spokes, regardless of ice and snow, and now has a large number of men at work—the number increasing daily. He has created a demand for a timber that heretofore has been almost worthless, and has given employment to a large number of idle men at remunerative wages.

—On the first page of this issue is an article from Rev. W. P. Bennett, in reply to our answer to his attack on recently in regard to a local notice of the result of his recent protracted meeting here. Now, as we have no desire to engage in a newspaper controversy, especially with a minister, for Bro. Bennett's sake, we will say that the meeting referred to was quite a success—that its influence has pervaded all vocations of the town; that not a single dance has been held; that the bar-keepers are all wearing long faces, and not stopping here, its reviving influence has gone out to the remote precincts of the county.

PERSONAL.

Spring teams are now in order.

Local news has been quite scarce this week.

Shedding shows last night that Anderson's is doing.

Everybody knows what "That Banzan" collar of the Red Front.

Hartford has been well supplied with dimmers for the past week.

White sewing machine needles and all attachments to be had at Anderson's.

If you are troubled with rheumatism use "Kendall's Spavin Cure." See advertisement.

Call on Lon Hill when you want a good drink, safely served up. Lon's saloon is a daisy, it is.

Mr. Griffin has resumed work on the old jail and will soon have it converted into a new residence.

Gross Williams wants all the children and turkey in the county, and will pay the highest cash prices.

New clothes, new cassimere, new clothing, and a lot of nice notions at V. P. Anderson's.

George W. Stewart, of Pleasant Ridge vicinity, has rented the farm near House of Edward and will move to this week.

Miss Naomi Morton, of Covello, this county, and Miss Emma Parsh of Spring Lake, Grayson county, are new pupils of Hartford College.

Always keep "Kendall's Spavin Cure" in your house. If you do, you will not get it for you sent to the price.

—Nice fresh groceries—the very best kind. These furnish you always can find.

At prices as low as ever before. At Mrs. Edson's grocery store.

Mr. B. Marshall, traveling salesman for John F. Siler, dealer in the cigars and best tobacco in town, this week. Mr. Marshall is one of the best salesmen that make peddling visits to this place.

—It is, perhaps, not generally known to numbers that J. White & Co., the great merchant tailor and clothiers, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., give them special discount on prices, the specially reduced price of discount. This firm is plainly inhumane.

For the benefit of the Breckenridge News and Herald, we will say that the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones, as we had it, is in error.

—Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881, at 10 o'clock, little John Griffin, infant son of D. E. Elmsland Monte Thomas, aged 11 days. The funeral took place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock.

We met our old friend, Chas. W. Hussey, in town Monday and learned from him that he had moved back to Buford. We regretted to see him in such bad health and hope he will experience a speedy recovery.

—Mrs. Lucy Edson, successor to Griffin Bros., has a full supply of staple and fancy groceries. You will find this establishment just under the Hartford office, where Messrs. Wan, H. and P. White Edson are in readiness to supply your wants. Give this house a trial when you wish anything in the grocery line.

—The "Handy Corner" is being repaired, newly-papered, remodeled and fitted up in elegant style, and will be occupied by Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg some time this week. Mr. Rosenberg will fill up the establishment with a large stock of dry goods, notions, boots, shoes and clothing. He is well known here and is quite a popular merchant.

—The musical concert at Court Hill last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair. The occasion was that of a benefit given by the citizens of the town to Prof. Ludwig, leader of the Hartford Cornet Band. Although it rained with-out ceasing, yet a goodly number of the music-loving citizens of the town were in attendance. The programme embraced overtures, duets, solos, quick-steps, which were well rendered.

—Mr. H. F. Mustain, of House Cave, is doing a land office business here in the spoke trade. He came here only a short time ago, but by indomitable energy he has already got on ovens of spokes, regardless of ice and snow, and now has a large number of men at work—the number increasing daily. He has created a demand for a timber that heretofore has been almost worthless, and has given employment to a large number of idle men at remunerative wages.

—On the first page of this issue is an article from Rev. W. P. Bennett, in reply to our answer to his attack on recently in regard to a local notice of the result of his recent protracted meeting here. Now, as we have no desire to engage in a newspaper controversy, especially with a minister, for Bro. Bennett's sake, we will say that the meeting referred to was quite a success—that its influence has pervaded all vocations of the town; that not a single dance has been held; that the bar-keepers are all wearing long faces, and not stopping here, its reviving influence has gone out to the remote precincts of the county.

PERSONAL.

Spring teams are now in order.

Local news has been quite scarce this week.

Shedding shows last night that Anderson's is doing.

Everybody knows what "That Banzan" collar of the Red Front.

Hartford has been well supplied with dimmers for the past week.

White sewing machine needles and all attachments to be had at Anderson's.

If you are troubled with rheumatism use "Kendall's Spavin Cure." See advertisement.

Call on Lon Hill when you want a good drink, safely served up. Lon's saloon is a daisy, it is.

Mr. Griffin has resumed work on the old jail and will soon have it converted into a new residence.

Gross Williams wants all the children and turkey in the county, and will pay the highest cash prices.

New clothes, new cassimere, new clothing, and a lot of nice notions at V. P. Anderson's.

George W. Stewart, of Pleasant Ridge vicinity, has rented the farm near House of Edward and will move to this week.

Miss Naomi Morton, of Covello, this county, and Miss Emma Parsh of Spring Lake, Grayson county, are new pupils of Hartford College.

Always keep "Kendall's Spavin Cure" in your house. If you do, you will not get it for you sent to the price.

—Nice fresh groceries—the very best kind. These furnish you always can find.

At prices as low as ever before. At Mrs. Edson's grocery store.

Mr. B. Marshall, traveling salesman for John F. Siler, dealer in the cigars and best tobacco in town, this week. Mr. Marshall is one of the best salesmen that make peddling visits to this place.

—It is, perhaps, not generally known to numbers that J. White & Co., the great merchant tailor and clothiers, corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., give them special discount on prices, the specially reduced price of discount. This firm is plainly inhumane.

For the benefit of the Breckenridge News and Herald, we will say that the notice of the death of Mrs. B. H. Jones, as we had it, is in error.

—Lon Hill's saloon is now the latest place of the kind in town. He keeps none but the best brands of wines and liquors, keeps his saloon clean, neat and nice and allows no boisterous conduct therein.

We believe in woman's rights and think that women ought to be sustained and encouraged in all their efforts to earn an honest, comfortable living. That's why we lay our greatest emphasis on Mrs. Lucy Edson.

—Hunt, in Hartford, Ky., Sunday night, February 20, 1881

